

Wisconsin Association of Academic Librarians

Annual Conference, April 2-4, 2003
Four Points Sheraton Milwaukee

Thank you for attending the WAAL Annual Conference. We invite you to fill out this evaluation. Your comments and suggestions will be used to help with future conference programming.

1. How would you describe your experience at this year's conference? (Check your reply).

- Very Positive Very Negative Neither Positive nor Negative
 Somewhat Positive Somewhat Negative

2. How worthwhile was each conference program and activity? (Place a check in the appropriate column. Conference programs and activities are listed in order by day).

Wednesday, April 2	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Keynote Speaker –Tyrone Cannon Partnerships and Connections...
New CATS on the Block...
Enhancing the Library Web Site with a Relational Database
Two Steps Forward, One Step Back:, or, It's Not Done Until the Money Runs Out...
Luncheon Program —A. David Schwartz The Future of the Printed Book
Plenary Session –Ethelene Whitmire A Model of Undergraduates' Academic Library Use and Information Seeking Behavior
One Year Along – Virtual Reference...
What's New in AACR2?
Building an In-House Staff Training Program
Marquette University Raynor Library Tour

Thursday, April 3	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Presenting Electronic Journals to Library Users
University of Wisconsin Digital Collections: The Start of a Grand Transformation
They Know the Tools But Do they Understand the Process? Using Research Workbooks...
Resident's Program @UIC: Possibilities and Opportunities for New Librarians
Building and Managing Digital Collections					☐➔

Thursday, April 3 Continued	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Collaboratively Creating a WebCT Web Evaluation Course: Why, What and How Luncheon Program— Mordecai Lee FDR's Forgotten Struggle to Disseminate Federal Information
Plenary Session — John W. Berry The Shock of the New: The Future of Libraries and Library and Information Workers
Supporting Distance Education Students in the Library: What do we need to do?
Beyond the Bodice-Ripper: Historical Fiction for the Well-Informed
The Harley-Davidson Archives:...or "Can you appraise these glass doorknobs for me?"
Reception and Poster Sessions

Friday, April 4	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
"Stale, Creepy, Tomb-Like": User Surveys and the Things You Learn
Innovative Library Approval Plans
The Assessment Imperative
"And Now for Something Completely Different": Procedures for Dealing with Licensed GIS Data Sets....
Collection Assessment in Depth

3. Was the number of programs? Too Few Too Many Just Right
4. Was the choice of programming? Good Fair Poor
5. How would you evaluate the quality of the Sheraton Hotel? Good Fair Poor
6. How would you evaluate the quality of conference meals? Good Fair Poor

Please comment on any aspect of the WAAL Conference (entertainment, programs, publicity, speakers...):

Please suggest any issues or speakers you would like the conference planning committee to consider for future WAAL programming (please include contact information, if known):

Please return this evaluation to the box located at the registration table. You may also post or fax this form by April 14th to: Patricia Herrling, Steenbock Memorial Library, 550 Babcock Drive, Madison, WI 53706 Fax: 608-263-3221

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.