

Wisconsin Association of Academic Librarians

Annual Conference, April 21-23, 2004
 Osthoff Resort Hotel & Conference Center
 Elkhart Lake, WI

Thank you for attending the WAAL Annual Conference. We invite you to fill out this evaluation. Your comments and suggestions will be used to help with future conference programming.

1. How would you describe your experience at this year's conference? (Check your reply).

- Very Positive Very Negative Neither Positive nor Negative
 Somewhat Positive Somewhat Negative

2. How worthwhile was each conference program and activity? (Place a check in the appropriate column. Conference programs and activities are listed in order by day).

Wednesday, April 21	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Plenary Session—Pletcher Legislative advocacy
Glassel --Licensing electronic resources: best practices...
Beatty, et al. -- Ask Wisconsin virtual reference roundup
Behling —Beyond the content...
Luncheon Program—Hensley I'm not going to learn & and you...
Prucha —The power of PBL and faculty collaboration...
Sampson —Civility in diverse relations
Hoelzen/Naumann/Watters —Where do we go from here? ILLiad..
Kaye/Martin/Weber —Outreach & other benefits of a Friends of the library group
Markgraf —Lurking librarian tells all...
Kraemer —Managing without a print copy...

Thursday, April 22	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Ward —Building an exemplary info lit program.
Anderson, et al. —Speaking up, speaking out... advocacy for librarians
Grugel/Renaud —Plagiarism, originality...
Matusiak/Miller —Descriptive metadata for digital images...					⇒

Thursday, April 22, continued	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Unterholzner/Brzeski —Servicing students and faculty at the merged info desk
Luncheon Program—Holman Weisbard — From Kolkata to Mumbai...
Grugel/Brzeski —Using Blackboard to assess information literacy skills...
Buckett/Witte —The CATS are back....
Buchanan —Ethics in Theory and Practice...
Ward and Hensley —Q & A
Harper/Mulhern —International documents
Schneider —Full speed ahead: scholarly publishing...
Poster Sessions

Friday, April 23	Very Worthwhile	Somewhat Worthwhile	Not Very Worthwhile	Not at All Worthwhile	Did Not Attend
Miner —Library grants without grief.
Boguszewski/Carr —At the heart of learning...
Vano/Hoeper —Where the students are...
Angel —Library/information science research...
Androski —To see ourselves as others see us

3. Was the number of programs? Too Few Too Many Just Right
4. Was the choice of programming? Good Fair Poor
5. How would you evaluate the quality of the Osthoff Resort? Good Fair Poor
6. How would you evaluate the quality of conference meals? Good Fair Poor

Please comment on any aspect of the WAAL Conference (entertainment, programs, publicity, speakers, etc.):

Please suggest any issues or speakers you would like the conference planning committee to consider for future WAAL programming (please include contact information, if known):

*Please return this evaluation to the box located at the registration table. You may also post or fax this form by April 30th to: Gene Engeldinger, Carthage College, 2001 Alford Park Drive, Kenosha, WI 53140
Fax: (262) 551-5904*